RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

The risk and reward indicator illustrates where the Sub-Fund is positioned in terms of its possible risks relative to its potential rewards. The higher the Sub-Fund's position on this scale, the greater the possible reward, but also the greater risk of losing money. This risk indicator is calculated using historical data, which cannot be used as a prediction for the future. Therefore the risk classification may change over time. Even if the Sub-Fund is in the lowest risk class you can lose money, as no investments are entirely risk free.

Based on preliminary calculations, the level of the risk-reward profile is 5. This means that the Fund is subject to a medium/high level of risk since it is exposed to market factors such as global macro-economic trends, currency fluctuations, interest rates fluctuations, inflation and the performance of issuers of securities.

Not all risks affecting the Sub-Fund are adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator. The following risks may affect the Sub-Fund:

Credit risk - is the possibility that a bond issuer will fail to pay interest and principal in a timely manner.

Liquidity risk - investments that could have a lower level of liquidity due to (extreme) market conditions or issuer-specific factors and / or large redemptions of shareholders of the Fund that could result in a potential decrease of the value of certain of the Fund's investments.

Counterparty risk - the possibility that the counterparty, such as brokers, clearing houses and other agents be unable to perform its obligations due to insolvency, bankruptcy or other causes.

Operational risk - due to issues such as natural disasters, technical problems and fraud.

Currency risk - this exists when the Sub-Fund invests in assets denominated in a different currency. A devaluation of the asset's currency relative to the currency of the Sub-Fund will lead to a reduction in the value of the Sub-Fund.

Derivative risk - the Fund may use derivatives as described in the above section - Investment Policy. Use of derivatives results in higher chances of loss due to the use of leverage, or borrowing. Derivatives allow investors to earn large returns from small movements in the underlying asset's price. However, investors could lose large amounts if the price of the underlying moves against them significantly.

Full details of all risks the Sub-Fund is exposed to are provided in the prospectus.
